59th Season

A letter from the editors:

Welcome to the amazing HCSMF&I Hi-Note, 2005! This year we have truly taken the Hi-Note to a new level in order to better represent all that goes on here at the Hartwick College Summer Music Festival & Institute. Drawing on the help of Keisuke Hoashi, our resident photographer among his many other roles here, we have incorporated many pictures from throughout the summer. We hope that these photos, along with the text contributed by campers and faculty alike, manage to capture your favorite and fondest memories from the summer.

We trust that this edition of the Hi-Note will inspire undiscovered creativity in all the students who attended this summer and wish to return next summer for the 60th Anniversary Season. The staff of the Hi-Note would like to thank Keisuke, the Festival Office staff, and everyone else for your contributions and for making the 59th Season fabulous.

Sincerely,

Rachel Miller

A Tribute to the Hi-Note
by Rachel Miller

I asked for help to fill your pages
From campers and counselors of all ages,
But from the crowd arose a buzz...
Nobody knew what the Hi-Note was.

I stood in utter disbelief
And fought off my dumbfounded grief
And thought of ways that I might say
All you do for me each day.

How could I capture all your glory
In just the space of one small story?
Could I tell them I read you on the train,
In class, in bed, in the pouring rain?

That I laminate you and read in the shower,
Can't go without out you for more than an hour,
Have back issues dating from '84,
And run a discount Hi-Note store?

'No,' I thought, 'I'll simply tell them,
By way of trying to compell them,
All that they should write about,'
And so I gave a hearty shout:

"The cover art, the wills, the poll!
They reach into the very soul,
Addresses from all past years
Bring forth waves of bitter tears!"

And with my speech the crowd was moved,
Old ones touched and young ones soothed,
And all immediately began to write,
Through the day and into the night,

Until, dear Hi-Note, two-thousand five,
Your glorious pages came alive,
And now you are, among all I've seen,
the mightiest Hi-Note that's ever been!

Training Hard

So you wanna be a ninja
You wanna be the very best
Well now I'm gonna put you all to the test

You wanna beat up the sports camp
You wanna fight with style and grace
Well then we are going to have to pick up the pace

TRAINING HARD, learning punching and kicking
TRAINING HARD, learning tumbles and flipping
TRAINING HARD, there are more things you're missing try it again…
Try it again

You want to reclaim your honor
You want to win and any cost
To truly regain what you have lost

Well now it's your turn to fight back
Now it's your turn to show them all
That it is the sports jocks' time to fall

TRAINING HARD, doing cool things with nunchuks
TRAINING HARD, breakin' boards with my head
TRAINING HARD, doing high kicks and HI-YAHS

TRAINING HARD, now we're stronger and faster
TRAINING HARD, thanks for teaching us master
TRAINING HARD, now we'll beat those sports campers, into the ground
Into the ground

Classes and Ensembles

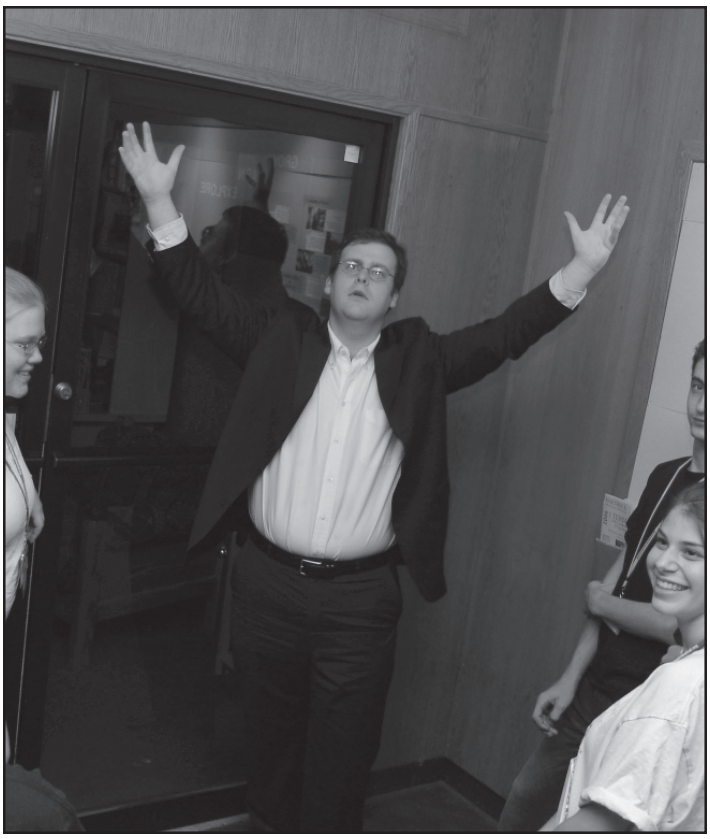

Composition Program

This was our first year of the Composition Pr ogram at Hartwick, and it was a huge success! Students in the programs wrote their own works and had them rehearsed and played in concert. All told, we had over twenty pieces performed in three concerts by mixed chamber ensembles of our excellent faculty instrumentalists.

The program featured a daily composition seminar where we listened to music from Beethoven to Berio and from Crumb to Cage. Maestro Chris Nappi came in every session to perform our percussion works (including those with strange and guttural noises). Bill Prokopow gave us a lesson in electronic music and Matt Glandorf philosophically enlightened and disturbed us (though more enlightened than disturbed, to be fair). We spoke of shape, form, expression, and technique, and even got to bask in the power of Muppets music ("Mahna Mahna"). Composing is, after all, serious business.

With all of this wonderful experience behind us, we can only be excited for what will be composed at Hartwick in the years to come. And to all of my young composers, you've done a great job! We have learned so much together.

-David Ludwig, Composer in Residence

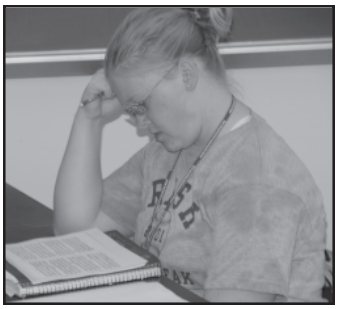

I feel that the composition program was something special and separate from everything else at Hartwick. I only participated in two out of the three sessions, but in that space of time I was introduced to some ridiculously weird and (sometimes) amazing music while my appreciation of masters like Bartok, Beethoven, and Ravel (to name a random few) was greatly enriched. David is really an inspiration to new composers like us – it's really a privilege to work with a composer as renowned and steeped in his craft as he is. He's also unbelievably funny and casual, which makes for a great atmosphere in class. I can think of few other teachers that would have joined us during class in watching a girl chase a giant squirrel/weasel-type-thing around outside.
-Lloyd Miller

Festival & Chamber Orchestras

The highlight for festival orchestra was accompanying Aaron Rosand when he played Tchaikovsky's violin concerto with us. I think all of the players were on their toes and very nervous during the concert. I don't think I've ever watched a conductoor more intently. Festival orchestra combines both counselors and students. Both conductors this summer were awesome. The repertoire we performed was challenging and it was rewarding to see how far we had come during the course of the sessions. Everyone learned a lot.

-Rebecca Shudak

Performing with the chamber orchestra proved to be a highlight of my summer at Hartwick. While I only played with the group during the first two sessions, I still gained a lot from the experience. We performed the complete Haffner Symphony as well as the overtures to Marriage of Figarro and the Magic Flute. In addition to Mozart, we also had our fair share of Beethoven, playing both his fourth and sixth symphonies. Throughout the summer, Sarah Hicks and Louis Solemno made the rehearsals interesting and fun and succeeded in delivering exciting performances.

-Deanna Nicholson

Festival & Institute Bands

To all participants in the wind bands during weeks three through six:

It has certainly be my pleasure to work with each of you and I hope you have enjoyed your summer of fantastic music making. I hope you will remember all the great music we performed. Institute Band - week four: Elsa's and Incantation and Dance and last week's Holst Suite in E flat!! Memorable performances, indeed - bravo. Festival Band - week four: The concert was superb and everyone enjoyed our entire concert including Harvest Hymn, Portrait of a Clown and Fall River Overture. Many thanks for your musical performance.

I am eagerly looking forward to the weekend (week six) and the bittersweet moment of our last oncerts together. I am sure, with your hard work, we will have these final concerts to add to this memorable list! I hope each of you will return home with a new passion and interest for wind band music. Please share it with your friends. Most of all, I look forward to our future collaborations here at Hartwick Summer Music Festival. Have a great year, stay safe and enjoy your music making to the fullest. See you next year!!

All the best,

Paul Weikle, Director of Bands (weeks three through six) Hartwick Summer Music Festival 2005

Jazz Bands and Combos

In the jazz program at Hartwick, there's something for every musician, no matter what level or skill. There are the Big Bands at Hartwick each performing a repertoire of varying difficulty. Each session, musicians in the big bands get the amazing experience of working with a different professional jazz conductor. Students learn to play and blend with fellow musicians and even sometimes get the opportunity to step into the limelight and solo.

After auditions every session, students are placed in one of many jazz combos based on their ability. With a member of the jazz faculty coaching their own ensembles, everyone in the combo gets personal assistance with their playing and everyone is able to learn a lot from the experience. In addition to all the jazz ensembles, students are offered a variety of jazz classes including jazz history, jazz improvisation, and master classes with special guest jazz musicians. There certainly is no question that the Hartwick Summer Music Festival has an effective and diverse jazz program. Students come from all over to get the great experience of being involved in the Hartwick Jazz Program, and who can blame them?

-Kyle Lewis

Ensembles and Classes

All students at HCSMF&I participate in small ensembles during their time here. From woodwind, brass and saxophone ensembles to vocal chamber music and piano ensembles, these classes offer all students a chance to work on chamber music. Students and counselors work closely with coaches to learn a piece in depth, learn the roles, rules, and protocols of playing chamber music, and to get to know each other more intimately. At the end of each session, each ensembles class holds a performance so that each group can hear their classmates perform. There is also a Thursday night Student Ensembles Performance that showcases select groups from each class, giving students a chance to hear what the other classes have worked on.

-Maura Lafferty

nsembles & Classes

Choirs

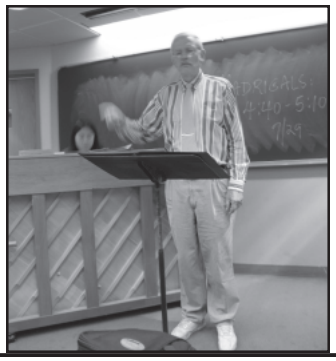

Perhaps the most beautiful part of Festival Choir besides the great performances and awesome directors is the fact that it is the one ensemble in which all students and counselors participate no matter their principle or secondary instrument. Through sheer might of general musicianship synthesized with a strong choral program led by dedicated and accomplished musicians, students, and counselors came together and sang like pros.

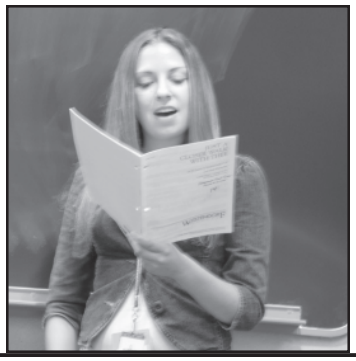

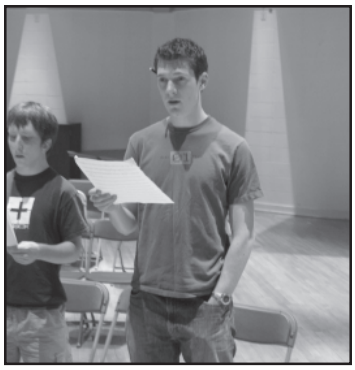

Chamber Choir was truly an adventure. From "Stars and Stripes Forever" with Dr. Crone to "Ancient Mother" with Dr. Bob – not to mention Benjamin Britten's "Rejoice in the Lamb" with Mr. Glandorf – one can't help but admire the diversity and magnitude of the repertoire covered over 6 six weeks. But the biggest lesson for choir members this year was learning to "confront the music," as Mr. Glandorf put it, "such that [the singers make themselves] somewhat vulnerable to the emotions in the music." By doing so, they were able to make powerful and living works of art.

"Mellow" would be a good adjective to describe Jazz Choir director Brenda Earle and her sizzling choice of music. HCSMF&I's strong tradition of diligence and quality permeated every note studied. From Duke Ellington to songs composed by Earle herself, Jazz Choir wowed the crowds with great music—all sung in a mellow tone.

-Jean Bernard Cerin

Musical Theater, Acting & Film Making

Second and third session, Keisuke Hoashi, or" Mr. Hollywood" was the musical theater director. Under his guidance, the class wrote an entirely original musical sketch comedy show, filled with fires caused by absent-minded oboe reed makers, music ninjas, a special look into the "real" lives of the Van Ess boys, and more. It was so rewarding to know that our production was a collaborative effort by everyone, so we all were connected to the show. The first day Keisuke told us a good show requires heart on behalf of the writers, and that's what we had; together we bonded to create one of the most successful music theater shows here at Hartwick. I wouldn't give that experience up for anything.

-Cassie Gafford

Film making is one of HCSMF&I's best courses. For an hour each day, students get to put music aside and mess around with different topics that could become the best movie of the summer. Whether it's "Band Camp Survival" or "Ivan Doing Stupid Things," each movie turns out really funny. I never thought I could have so much fun and learn so much at the same time! Film making class was one of the best parts of my summer. Join next year!

-Scott Peragine

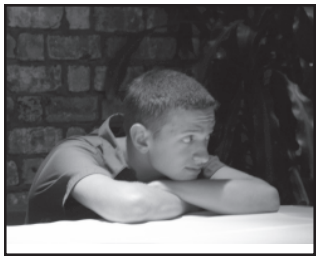

Concert Series

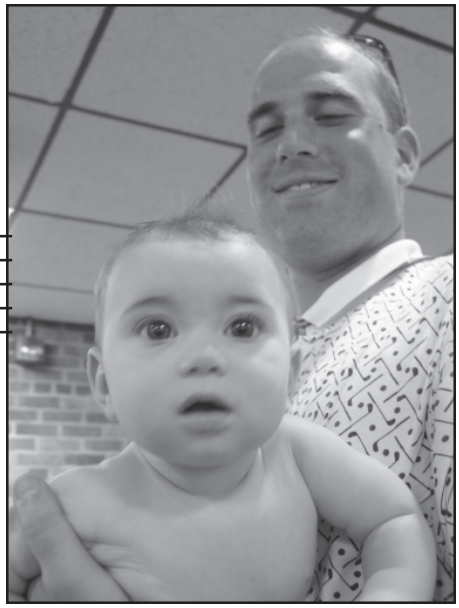

Concerts are truly a corner stone here at HCSMF&I. Almost every night different artists from around the country and from within the festival itself take the stage and make beautiful music for all to enjoy. From reknowned jazz and classical instrumentalists such as Dick Oatts and Aaron Rosand to talented students and counselors, we were blessed with music of the highest quality.

4th Floor Wilder

by Corey Furnish

I know that all the boys of Van Ess dream that the 4th floor girls have immense pillow fights in their undies. Boys, I am here to tell you that it is true. That's right, we pillow fight in our undies. But beforehand we have to get clean. At around 10:30 p.m. every night, music can be heard from the bathroom, most commonly Michael Jackson's Number 1's. Upon entering the bathroom, one can see at least 3 bathing-suit clad girls in one shower, singing, dancing, and bathing. After this, girls walk back to their rooms and put on their P.J.'s, only to meet again in the hall for the pillow fight. But of course, at the stroke of 11:00 p.m., girls walk back to their own rooms to cuddle in bed and discuss boys! Such is the night life of the 4th Floor Wilder Girls.

Last Will and Testaments

The last will and testament of Megan Benson:

Hey Catherine, I won't ever forget about those Oxens down on the farm. Sarah Weston, You are awesome, never give up! _ Priscilla, You go girl. You were a great counselor and accompanist. 4th floor counselors: You guys rock!! You're the best, go 4th floor! To everyone I met here: It was great meeting you, getting to know you, and the memories I have will not fade. I will miss you all! Hope to see you all next year. Love you all!

Julia Berger's Will and Testament/Shout-Outs:

Calixto- I'm leaving you with the knowledge that I've managed to take several pictures of you while you weren't looking. Haha. Kyla- I leave you my wardrobe, cuz. MY Handyman- camp wouldn't have been the same w/o you, Beware of the Googly eye! And I leave you my sexy toes. I love you! Deanna- I leave you a Hershey chocolate for every day, even though you live in Hershey, PA. Patrick- I leave you all the french fries I've ever taken from you at lunch. Karen- I leave all the food you want and a choir conductor who plays a string instrument and rides a Harley. Jeff O.- ooo baby I love your way, I'm gonna miss sitting next to you at concerts! Anna- good times girl, I leave you GOOD food. Shelley and Molly- Thanx for being the best counselors ever. Josh M.- I've had some of the best conversations ever with you – I'll miss that. Randolf- You're by far the nicest person I've ever met, love you! Albert- you really made camp interesting for me – keep wearin those sunglasses. Rhys- I leave you the ability to be the coolest cat around. Rachel- I leave you my shoes. Alex- thanx for making me laugh NON-STOP whenever you're around. Sonora- there's nothing that makes me happier than hearing you laugh – you're amazing, good luck with your flute. Alison- I always seemed to bump into you whenever I was upset, thanx for the support, you're awesome. JUDY (Judith)- Remember our long talks (from moms to chocolate, lol.) you've been like a sister to me and I'm so happy you came this year. Love you <3. Julia- the best roommate/sister ever. "There's pretty much nothing we don't do together" – love ya. It's been a great 6 weeks, thanx to everyone for making it that way…I love you all!! BAND CAMP ROCKS.

Last Will and Testament of Laura Berger:

Karen- I leave you PIZZA. The 5-5-5 deal rocks! Andrew- Thanks for all the "mini" concerts and all the help with orchestra music. I'll miss you! Calixto- I leave you all the times I forgot a pencil and to turn the page. I also leave you the opportunity to not be my stand partner for once, lol. Alex- I leave you one more hair massage and the ability to brighten my day. I love you so much! Ellen- I leave you an air conditioner that works! Rachel- "If you were a parrot would you wear your pirate on this shoulder or this shoulder?" lol. Deanna- I leave you a pair of my shoes and the ability for you and Rhys to be the cutest couple. You are such a sweetheart. I love you hun! Irie- I leave you the ability to go a day without fun run. I know how you feel! lol. Good times in string quartet and musical theater. Love ya! Sonora- I leave you the ability to not get into a fight with Calixto for one day! lol. You are too funny and amazing at flute! I will miss you! Alison- I leave you Jake! lol. You are so awesome girl and I'll miss you a lot. You rock at tenor! Anna- I leave you a decent hot guy and some Chinese food to share with me! lol. I look forward to seeing you every year so much. I love you to the extreme! xoxo. Rhys- I leave you the ability to be the hottest 9th grader ever. We have so many memories. I love you so much and will miss you a lot! Alyssa- watching boys sing in festival choir was a blast! They must be concentrating really hard! lol. Love you! Becca- Thanks for being the best counselor ever! I'm glad we became friends and I'm glad you took me and Judith running! Lol, you are the best, don't forget our quartet! Kyla- I leave you my push-up bra, you are too funny girl. Love you and I'll miss you! Kyle- Sitting with you at concerts was fun, you are a cool person and I'll miss you! Hayden- I leave you all my bad flirting, a perfect view of me in orchestra, a telephone convo at 2 a.m. and so much more. I love you! Judith- Wow! Words can't explain how happy I am you came to Hartwick! You are like a sister to me. Never forget all the running, girl talks and gossiping about EVERYTHING! Thanks for always being there for me! I will miss you BEYOND BELIEF! lol. I love you so much! Julia- "The sister I never had" lol, too funny. Thanks for being a great roommate. Sorry I didn't wake you up for choir that one day! Never forget "Can you tell my facewash is under my shirt?" and so much more. Camp wouldn't be the same without my little sissy! I love you! Conclusion: This year at Hartwick has been one to remember! I love you all and I will miss everyone soo much!

Mary Carter's Will and Testament:

I would like to leave my ridiculous stash of candy to my dear friend and piggy-back rider Addy, along with all of my shirts. Lauren will receive all of my money and my small musical library. My roommate, Sara, gets my laptop and my neighbor, Katherine, gets my DVDs. Kendra gets all the remaining clothing and my makeup. I would like to give Catherine a hug, seeing how there is nothing left to give but my room fan and she already has one. Your love life kept me going. Jake- Hi-5! Keisuke- you're cool. Rachel- you were so amazing when you sang! Smile! To everyone, KISSES. Bi and everyone smile (including you!).

The Last Will and Testament of Shannon DeSantis:

Judith T. - It was so cool having you as a roommate. You're such a great person and violinist! It's been fun talking and getting to know each other. Thanks for making that a pleasurable experience! Judith M. – We survived festival orchestra! Thanks for being a wonderful stand partner, awesome violinist, and good friend! Always remember Shannon's motivated speeches! Kelsey – Keep building your award winning sand castles! It was such fun getting to hang with you in all of our classes. Keep playing viola because you're awesome at it! The 4th floor girls – You guys were a riot! So funny, kind, and caring! Going to miss all the crazy things that you guys did to keep me laughing! Singing and dancing in the shower should be an integral part of everyone's day!

John Devlin's Will :

To Nick Butcher: Lunch requests, late night Wal-Mart runs, watching movies for no reason, Spaceballs—the quote: "Keep firing…" random runs, philosophical music conversations, Cheeseburgers, an interest in Harry Potter, parties with Solemno in the coming year. To Bill Prokopow: Hi bill…yeah, hi, hi, hihi, how are ya, yeah? Hi!

This is the last will and testament of Addy Davidoff:

Dear Hartwick music camp ppl., I had a lot of fun my first year here. To Kyla, I totally don't have big xxxx's! To Lauren, you were always there to cry with and get hurt with and… To Mary, there will never be anyone who has awesomer clothes than you (kisses). To Kendra, I <3 your hair! Lol. Molly- you made me happy when I was sad. Becca- There's a slice of pizza with your name on it! Effeminate singing. Massive amounts of food at all times. To Justin Hernandez: An endless supply of quit aids, a Mazda 3 to complete the 3-3's some muscles to go under those muscles shirts, a tattoo for the other arm, another bose ipod dock! To Louis Morgan: Endless, endless family guy quotes, tivo so we never forget to tape said show, membership to the 3-3's club if Justin ever gets a real job and stops wasting his money on unnecessary vices.

To Deanna Nicholson: an endless supply of clarinet sections solos and the perfect section partner, leadership of our quartet, free lessons with Victoria, a permanent seat next to me in whatever orchestra we find ourselves. To Rebecca Shudak: Late night Wal-Mart runs, random fits of laughter with and at each other, looks of boredom, colorful outfits, copy requests.

Sara Dover's Last Will and Testament:

To Sam, I leave Challah and Zucchini Bread. To Elyse and Erin, I leave Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. And festival choir music (to Sam, too). To Cassie, I leave the solution to all poverty and war. And an even larger card-board cutout of Legolas. To Scott, I leave Cale. And really crappy movies. To Mike, I leave a gazillion questions asked at festival band. To John M., I leave one of those cool trombone pencil-holder things. To Joe M., I leave lots of chocolate chip cookies. To my combo, I leave intense jazz improv sessions. Real World Band Camp 2005! "This is the real world". Maura, good luck with the jazz oboe! Thanks for the brownies, Carolyn.

This is the last will and testament of Elizabeth Flynn:

To Erica, I leave my substance in the white container. (Nuts) To Becca, I leave my entire stash of Teriyaki Thins…I hope you enjoy them. To Sara, I leave my books on how to say "Romeo Without Purring". To Catherine, I leave my entire recordings of my "Awesome Choreography Moves". To Lea, I leave my superlative sheet, now you are cool. I also leave you the right to look at the H.S.A.G. To Judy, I leave you my anime and manga, well, the ones I didn't like anyway. To Megan, I leave you my entire collection of Disney Animation movies, guitar picks, and the three candy bars that you left in my fridge. And now, to my dear roommate Jenna. Firstly, I leave you a full pitcher of lime juice. Second, I leave you the "taste of corn" corn crisps and corn muffins. I leave you my addictive toasted onion crackers along with a trash can for when you laugh too much.

Corey Furnish's Will and Testament:

Mathilde: The best Southerner I know! I loved cuddling with you at night and taking some of the greatest showers ever! I totally sing better than you. Anyway, I leave you all the Hartwick cups and ice in the world. Biederman: The friend I never really thought I would make. We had some good times…and great clams. So..[random scatting]. The Boop de Doop Tr3wp is the coolest. I leave you with anything you want [except fill in blank]. Irie: The coolest roommate I ever had! I loved reading the H.P. with you! I leave you with the drumsticks of Music Ninja #2 as a token of my love. Ian: The brother I never had. You are super cool and that's really all there is to it. I leave you…I have no flippin' idea, um…I leave you with some cookies…sugar cookies…hmm…sugar. Louis: You know every theme to almost every cartoon, and for some odd reason that makes me respect you. You made Musical Theater a gagillion times better (or whatever comes after billion). I leave you a championship trophy for a Boggle tournament. Rachel Miller: The coolest girl counselor! I'm so glad that I was able to make you cry from laughing so hard…HA! I beat you Louis! Anywho, I leave you with the image of my sloth impression. AJ: Dude, I don't know what to say to you, you are just amazing and I love you. I leave you with bags of Dippin' Dots Ice Cream. Cassie: I loved singing in the shower with you! Thanks for allowing me to get dramatic every once in a while! I leave you with the image of my "special" trick! Christian: I never even heard the actual "Roxxy" but your impression was AMAZING! And that's it. I have no idea what to leave, so I will get back to you on that. Hugh Grant (Adam): I finally met someone famous, except not really. I had fun playing BOOGLE with you and everyone else. I leave you Cassie because she is my property, so yeah…you can have her. Evan: The coolest Canadian I ever met, I haven't really met like any Canadians, but still. I love how you actually say "aboot", that's amazing! AMAZING! I leave you with the phrase I use whenever you do well in Boggle.

The Last Will and Testament of Cassie Gafford:

Mathilde!- Single-handedly, you made Hartwick amazing for me. I apologize for my bad British accent. Magic cookie bars. Orc dorks. Corey- Thank you for making camp funny. Showers, moody boys, sneak peeks. We can't fight without you by our sides, Ninja #2. Adam- Who could have seen how close we would be? Thank you for backgammon, musical information, your beautiful solos, and your friendship. Ian- I'm so glad you became part of the Boopty-Doop Troop (or whatever), even if it got you in trouble late one Saturday. Oh well. Best personality, awesomest = you. Louis and Rachel- It's lame I put you together, but oh well. Thank you for re-introducing me to Boggle. I am eternally grateful. Go summer 2001! Scott- I could not have gotten through the insanity that was the med run without you. I leave you all the pamphlets on diseases and disorders I heard read aloud at 8:00 a.m. Rich- thanks for being my replacement brother for a while. It's been mad real. Irie-

Hey sports jock! You fought well. I leave you early morning letters under the door. AJ- You're the best sounding board ever. Two weeks was too short, darling, so I'm expecting a full AJ experience next year. Brian- Six years later, we're still friends. Who would have guessed. Shhh and clean up your dishes.

The Last Will and Testament of "The Group"
(AKA Jenna, Liz, Megan, Judy, & Katy):

It has been a weird and funny 2 weeks. Megan and Jenna are Long Island buddies with the coolest accents around. The word "paginis" should now be used as the official moto of our group and official song = Old Abram Brown (underwear, alternate lyrics). Old Abram Brown's brown underwear shall be flown at half-mass in commemoration of this session. We the people of dorms 211, 213 and 216 hereby declare our allegiance to everything inconceivable and ridiculous to be conceivable and un-ridiculous. I, Jenna, leave Megan a new bed. I, Megan, leave Jenna a case of coke (caffeine) for burping purposes only. I, Jenna, leave Judy "Billy Boyd" and his hairs. I, Judy, leave Katherine a rubber duck. I, Liz, leave everyone in the group a bowl of rice. I, Kathy, leave everyone a cold shower. I, Liz, leave Jenna everything mentioned in her will, as well as rice cakes and rice mills. This is our summer & hope to share more silly memories. Love, The Fools & Clueless.

Orli Hakanoglu's Will and Testament:

Sarah- I leave a million packs of "Juicy Fruit" gum that I have eaten. I also leave a recording o my voice saying "crrrunch crrrunch" over and over again. I'll create a robot to pound on my wall at night for you. I'll miss you so much! In principio…(cream cheese!). Emily- You are so sweet & nice. I leave you Heifitz & Perlman to practice with endlessly…I still can't get over the fact that you won the concerto competition and played so beautifully…you're amazing! Jenna- I give you a blow-up figure of me to pick up and call "my little Bubbula"…An 11 and a 13 year old who are so close…that's really cool. I leave you my bed to put your stuff under, too… Julie- I leave MYSELF more hours to stay in YOUR room. B.F.F.! I'm so happy you had the same schedule as me…we had a lot of great time together. SCHNEIDER!!!! Haha! My Trio- You dudes are awesome! We accomplished a lot in 2 weeks…great job! We still need a group name… Kyla- I leave you a pile of Trukey Jerkey…and "Viva" shampoo, too. You're so cool…have a great summer! Melanie- I leave you "Butter Lover's" popcorn – plenty of it…for all the ones I had. You are a multi-talented person, and that's really awesome! See you next summer! Charlotte- I leave you more candy so you can be happy…you are an awesome roommate…pleasingly perfect. Anyone else that I left out, I still like you, I just can't say something to everyone!

I, Samanhta Hecht, being of mind and body completely dead from extra Dvorzak rehearsals, do hereby declare this to be my last will and testament. I leave the following to…

The Barefoot Trio: Module B, the "connection," Piano Man, and Shostakovich Trio No. 2 when we have a reunion! Jade: And alarm clock with more patience than I have being "cool," and toothpaste on sale. Ariana: "Can I feel your callous?!" and along with Carolyn: Hava N'gilah , coupons, hippie skirts, goldfish, and a cloven hoof. Julia: bonding time and opportunities. Catherine: Monty Python and a battery long enough for Moulin Rouge. Lilah: "jimmies" and clean shoes. Emily and Kaitlyn: hippie sunglasses and Sal's voices. Maura: my entire classical collection. Sara: our amusing current lack of jokes – and zucchini bread! Elyse and Erin: your still-froxen Chinese rice, cheese Frisbees, tangy ice cream, and a lifetime supply of quintet stories. Ellen: a floor rug parallel to yours, drawers that don't slam and perishable nail polish remover. And last but certainly not least, my quintet whose names are many and need not be printed, I leave you string cheese being perky, and what goes in the holes. Always stay your flexible cat selves. Thank you everyone for an awesome sweet sixteen, the one month I look forward to the most, and for being who you are. I love you all.

Last Will and Testament of Justin Hernandez:

This was a good summer. Met some great people. Bill: Finally came out of your shell this year. You're a good friend and I'm glad we hung out this summer. Louis: You're just amazing! You're a good man. Nick: We became good friends and I wouldn't want it any other way. John: Devlin! You're crazy Glandorf skit was great! And so are you. Bryan: Laaaa!! Becca: Believe it or not, I'm glad I met you this summer. You're a great person and I like spending time with you. Thanks for making my summer that much better and I'm serious about that. I won't forget our good times together. Miller: The smartest and funniest guy I know! I have a lot of respect for you. Molly: I told you it would all work out. Lol. You're a doll and I'm glad we hung out this summer. Terry: How bout some…lol you're a great guy with a great girl. Nice man. Kathy: How you doin'? You're just hot. Lol you know I love you. Rachel: "I love you" and "do you hate me?" To anyone I forgot, I love you!!!!

The Last Will of Nicole Houghton:

Nichole L: I give you all of the games of ERS you could ever want. I also give you many thanks for putting up with how "pure" I was. Adam D: Wow, what a cliche, but, I give you my heart. Though we live over 100 miles apart, I hope we can always keep in touch, I've never known a guy like you before. I also leave you with all the ice cream you could ask for... (ice cream... yay!). Ali: Well, I'll see you soon probably but I'll leave you something anyways... my necklace that always got tangled, and had the pretty blue stone. Jenna: I give you all the laughs we had during Hartwick, those were some good times. I also give an apology that I never fulfilled your deal... sorry about that. Danielle: I give you confidence, you need to have more faith in yourself, believe me, you're a really good oboeist. Erin and Sarah: I leave you many 4 against 3 conducting patterns from elements of conducting... remember always to eat your spinach(lol). Jennifer: I leave you with my lovely reed diagrams that I drew on my festival choir folder (single reeds are always the inferior ones). Christina: I give you the Tchaikovsky symphony 4 music that somehow I miraculously sounded close to decent on... I still have a looooooooong ways to go on bassoon, but I have somewhat of a start now. Melanie: I give you lots of geometry equations to do for "fun"... like finding volumes of 3D objects. Adam L: Thanks so much for helping me out on Tchaikovsky, if I had to play all of that by myself, I would've died. My session 2 quartet and Charlotte: Thanks for all of the great times we had together... it was a lot of fun. Thus... the 2005 season of Hartwick ends, though in the minds of many it will not be forgotten.

Last Will and Testament of Bryan House:

To Kate M. I will the spirit of Duke Ellington which I kept in a plastic container all summer. To Ms. Kim my untucked shirt and running shorts. To Rigby: my Buddhist chant. To Matches I say "We are the W-patrol in need of a R-control." To Justin I leave the cymbals, you know what to do with them. To the girl staff I leave a southern gentleman. To the guy campers I leave the handbook for 'northern gentlemen'! To Kaufman I leave any taste in music may it lead you to trouble and girls. To Jacob, all the high F's Mozart has to offer. To Miller I leave long notes, very long notes. To Nick I leave daylight trips to the park and all their groovyness. To the campers, you know who you are. STOP PUTTING THINGS UP YOUR NOSE geez, what would happen if I wasn't there.
Love Bryan

Upon leaving Hartwick this summer, I, Catherine Hughes leave:

To the 4th floor counselors our nights camping out in the hall and that night out together that we never got to take, Beckie – movies and being invisible, Priscilla – time to practice and a big herrroooo!, Caitlin – lots and lots of reeds, Deanna – Jane Austin and Beethoven's 6th, Rachel Rosenthal – numbers and a good ankle, Megan Benson – a pair of oxens down on the farm, Julia and Elana – crossword puzzles in my room and smart people camps, Jacob Newberry – a laugh with a southern accent, John Lumpkin – a puppy, Shudak – it still doesn't work, and it never will, more cello duos, Andrew and Jason – a chance to play Shostakovich 8, Charlotte – the bubble, Andrea and Nicole – nights off at Friendly's. Thank you to everyone for a great summer!

This is the last will and testament of Andrea Isaacson:

I will my 'claw' to Jacob Newberry, Priscilla Yuen, Kathy Allen and Jean Cerin. I will my fooseball skills to Nicole Piunno. I will my love for pop to all those who call it soda, and I will my accent to all the non-North Dak"O"ta people. I will my 'mom's combat boots' to Kyla Moskovich.

The Last Will and Testament of Erica Jack:

Dear my musical homies,
You all made my first sleep-away camp a real blast. Anyway, there were so many hilarious moments that happened in these past two weeks that I can't even begin to list them, so, you know what they are if you were there I will miss all of you! LOVE YOU

Last Will and Testament of Victoria LaMantia:

Mer- I leave you a mop to clean up the messes your brother made. I don't know if this is the right time to tell you this, but I stabbed our mom. Okay Katie Okay? B2Kim. Julie- I leave you more space to dance. Breaking a sweat dancing in your room. Thanks for sitting with me for hours in the shade when I got my "really bad sunburn." Making little birds during concerts. Victoria- I leave all of my gum to get hopped up on sugar. Writing notes during theory and communicating during Festival band. CB!!!! Christina- I leave you more closet space to put all of your shoes! Thanks for being so much fun. Meg- I leave you (and I) better organizational skills. Maybe then we would have gotten our film done on time. Kaitlyn- I leave you your own stand so we won't have to share anymore (even though I liked sharing) Julia- I leave you your own copy of Harry Potter so that you can actually read it. This summer was awesome and hopefully next year will be even better!ALL, PEACE OUT!

I, Elyse Lauzon, leave the following items to my friends:

First, my bed sheets to Lilah and Ariana so that they can hang them over the windows and keep the sunlight out. Then, my goldfish to Jade, the my meal card and brownie mix. And, of course, my French horn duet books for Ellen, so that she can play as many duets as she wants. Also, I leave my French horn polishing cloth to Ellen so she can most fashionable person attending band camp and the rest of my food supply to Sara, the coolest female trombone player ever. For Carolyn, the next professional cellist touring the world, I leave polish her shiny French horn even more than she already does. To Catherine, I leave my window screens and Puppy, since I know he will be well taken care of and never be thrown out a window. Next, for Julia, I leave my money so she can buy enough Orlando Bloom and Brad Pitt posters to cover her whole room and enough boxes of Cocoa Puffs to last a lifetime. Finally, Sam, my dearest friend who stayed for third session and taught me the ways of Jewish people, I leave my Chinese rice that is probably still in her refrigerator to this very day! I love all you guys!

I, Erin Lauzon, leave the following to some of the coolest people I ever met:

Lilah- a Rubber Ducky update, off-campus bus rides, soft serve ice cream, "jimmies", a candy machine, beach towels, a metronome, magazines, the endurance to practice more, a very special festival choir song; Kyrie (and variations). Carolyn- a foldable light-weight cello, soymilk (thanks for the brownies!). Sam- interesting sagas, Dvorak tunes, white rice, hol-la bread, a "samwich". Catherine- anything to do with lambs, more orbit gum (yeah, right), oranges, mixed sodas, the courage to throw lamby out a window and have me catch her, "rubber ducky, you're the one". Sara- black dress clothes, long bed sheets, edible food. Ariana- enough frizz-ease, the courage to go up to Aaron Rosand during breakfast to tell him he's brilliant. Jade- more hair products for my hair and the patience to do it. Ellen- empty water bottles in the bottom drawer, cucumbers and diet coke, gum on the wall (was claimed to be thumbtak, but still have doubts about), pancakes and rubber eggs. Julia- enough coco puffs for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Elyse- fructis shampoo, the ability to defy gravity rather than dropping 3 earrings per day and blaming me that I took them and/or I made you drop them.

Beckie Markarian's Last Will and Testament:

To CH and J A-L I leave all the Golden Puffs you can eat, games of egyptian rat screw and musical scrabble. To DN, CK, PY, CH I leave all of our fond memories of late night gab sessions. To Wilder 4th floor I leave my love!

The last will and testament of Rachel Miller:

Corey: Basically, you are awesome. Your arm-around-the-shoulder move is suave, your ninjas rock my socks off, your sloth brought tears to my eyes, and you are hot. You are the hottest non-moving cellist I've ever seen. To you I leave a ton of sarcasm, attitude problems, and love. Keep being you, I can't wait to hear from you again! Cassie: Hey, did you know Cassie's back? To you I leave intellectual conversation, words like lei and emu, a world with no men, ten clarinet solos, and broccoli that doesn't taste like grass. I'm so glad you were here this summer! Find me on the facebook and tell me how college treats… Mathilde: I will take this opportunity to remind you that you said Matthew McConaughey would call me for my birthday. _ You are the coolest girl and baddest ninja in the world. I think I'll leave you iced tea with tons of ice, and hope that I see you again soon. Adam: You are one of the nicest guys I've ever met. To you I leave a big double thumbs-up for every audition you ever do. Best of luck bassooning! Louis: To you I leave a Ron/Hermione/Nynaeve fan-fiction, a CHAMOIS, all of the double-cheeseburgers I will never eat again, the sickest most disrespectful Tekken move ever, plastic sheets, Where's Hagrid?, "let's sing a duet", and most of all The New New Colossus, because that was the single funniest moment I have ever experienced, I'm not gonna lie. Everything else will have to come home with us. Oh, and orso, thank you for another best summer of my life. Pound. _ Ian: You are a sick marimba players and an even better evil villain. Biederman: I've enjoyed being a part of the resistance with you.

To the whole Boggle Crew:

Y O A R
U S W E
G O E A

Irie Monte's Last Will and Testament:

Casey, Emily and Michelle: the Nyack gang. You guys are so fun and silly. Don't forget Petrucci, dimes, the whiteboard, and hummus! Jenna: I loved scouting out cute boys with you and talking about everything. You are my favorite Vermontian. Mathilde: My beautiful, second session, New Orleans roommate. I loved ninjas, showering, sleepovers and late-night talks. Becca: My favorite neighbor! You are such a fun, silly sweetiepie! You can have Ewan and I'll have his clone. Rachel: Don't ever forget laundry boys, minigolf, singing badly, raindancing, ridiculous laughs, salt and sweet'n'low. Jason: I love spending time with you even if it means sitting through boring concerts. I give you all the half frozen bags of peas in Hartwick. Cassie: You are so friendly and fun to be with. You will always be the intelligent ninja in my heart. Rhys: My favorite sports camp samurai. I love our funny ridiculous accents. I give you all of the groundhogs, gremlins, winking, and ketchup in Hartwick. Corey: I love being your roommate, shower parties with Michael Jackson, reading HP and talking. You are so funny and loveable. I give you all the laughs in Hartwick.

Being A Counselor
by Louis Morgan

What being a counselor has meant to me?
It's more than just stapling in silence
Or sitting in the back of festival choir
Not quite knowing what a smile is.

What being a counselor has meant to me?
It's more than a scream or a shout
Or automatically accusing someone
Of trying to sneak people out.

What being a counselor has meant to me?
It's more than just having no fun
And writing kids up when they poke their heads out
After eleven o'one.

What being a counselor has meant to me?
It's more than one night off a week
Or dealing with that famous Anderson smell
That came when the roof had its leak.

What being a counselor has meant to me?
It's more than wrongfully accusing
And noisily searching through everyone's room
While they are peacefully snoozing.

What being a counselor has meant to me?
It's more than the other expect
It's about playing music and having some fun
And treating campers with respect.

What being a camper has meant to me…

Last Will and Testament of Louis Morgan:

I must say, after spending six weeks with all of you people I am completely sick of this place… FALSE. I had a great time being a counselor and there are many people I have to thank for that. Justin: There's just no denying it. The Red Dwarf is sick. Congratulations on becoming a "Legend." Bill: You are one master songwriter and I hope you put your works from Ninjacal into your portfolio. I'll see you and Keisuke in New York when that show makes Broadway. Rachel: Not like the giant of Greek or Roman fame. A real tall woman stands with torch in hand. Near Ellis Island… you know the voice. You made this summer a lot of fun and although it's not in this book you know what everyone voted us. And I promise I'll sing a duet with you some day. Emily V: Sorry I broke your heart but I'm just such a sick frisbee player I can't help it. I'll make it up to you someday. Ian: You're sick at four mallet playing and I know I'll never be that good. You're awesome, have a good time at MSM. Corey, Cassie, Mathilde, and Adam: You guys rocked and were so much fun. Once again,

"Music Ninjas" was awesome. We're all keeping in touch and I'll see you guys at camp next year… that's not a request.
So yeah, great times. Mr. Sandman, "No Girls Allowed," "AT THE SAME TIME!" Ultimate Frisbee (the first ninjas), Chernobyl (I'll still never play it Miller), Family Guy, and of course resisting the Regime. Hope to see everyone next year… thank you for your time…and remember…
REEDS CAN KILL

The Last Will and Testament of Kyla Moscovich:

Dear people who read this ,
I have had a very fun summer, even after the whole tug-of-war incident! There are many things and inside jokes I would like to leave for people, but I can only state a few of them since there are only so many words I can write in this will. Gillian Berger: YO!!, Big Leah: SAILBOAT!, Little Leah: YOUR MOM IS SHOWING, David White: YOU'RE SO CUTE!, Julia Berger: I leave you the underwear that was stolen, Addie: I leave you with a pair of small xxxx's, Lauren: "…This steamy thing!", Sara: I leave you GARED, Liz Talbert: I leave you some garlic knots since I ate all of yours, Rhys: Do the lisp thing, It's so funny, Louis: LOUIS!!, Deanna: YOUR MOM!, Jenna: Thank you for helping me when I couldn't get my shirt on! Nikki: Where is my pink bra? Big Leah: Distorted face kid, First floor counselors: YOUR MOM WEARS COMBAT BOOTS!!!. Nicole: How's your POP? Nicole: NO! Maura: COTTIE What!, Rachel: I leave you a blow-up boyfriend and some orange hair dye, Kaitlyn Judge: "Hey sexy thang". TO ALL OF MY MUSICAL HOMIES I leave you all of my "YOUR MOM" jokes that ever lived. I LOVE YOU ALL (well, most of you). _ PEACE OUT.

Deanna Nicholson's last Will/Testament:

Thanks for a wonderful summer, guys! You made my first Hartwick experience quite memorable. Fourth floor girls: thanks for being wonderful! I love y'all!

Last Will of Mary Olenen:

Katherine: A good snap, being a fatty and ordering too much Chinese food, and multi-functional Salisbury steak that can pass for other things. Nicole: Uhm…Harry Potter? _ Maura: The truth of friendship. Priscilla: You're the best Asian ever! Herro! Andrea: A teleporter to the emergency room. Matt: I leave you all of our photocopied quintet music for the fall semester. I leave you nothing else because we go to school together. _ Brian, Deanna, Catherine, Priscilla, and Becca: more Chinese food and other cool items for long nights of copying band and orchestra music. To all the horn players this summer: I'm glad I could learn something from each one of you; "Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you have imagined." I hope to see you guys next year! To all the second floor girls: I'll miss you girls. _ Email me sometime and tell me what's going on in your life; I'd love to hear from you!

The Last Will and Testament of Scott Peragine:

Kaitlyn gets a brick wall to stare at while I talk to her. Cole gets a never-ending supply of frisbees. Emily gets the number 8 (you know why). Joey V. gets an extra hour of sleep for that 7:30 lesson I missed (sorry Joe). Frank gets a gigantic bottle of hair gel to replace the one that was stolen). Cassie gets a Nintendo game system to go with the coolest belt buckle ever. You made waking up for the med run worthwhile. Ryan gets an award for coolest Asian (Shabadole! Sclagoo! Meh!). Josh gets an award for being awesome at Melee and free root beer straight from Choppa's fridge. Ben was the coolest roommate ever. Jason was the best unofficial roommate. Peri gets a copy of the best trombone conversation ever (even though you already have it). George gets a ninja. Pete gets a 2nd mango.

Jeff gets to play every instrument ever made. Alyssa is the best jazz french horn (long live "the Group"). Irie gets a Somers t-shirt. Deanna gets all the programs made over the summer. Lil' John is a great actor. Call me for the next movie with make. Sara rocks my world. Have a great summer everyone! Let me know if you aren't on the list.

Rachel Rosenthal's Last Will and Testament:

"Here's to the nights we felt alive, here's to the tears you knew you'd cry. Here's to goodbye, tomorrow's gonna come too soon." Irie, you are such a unique and crazy person and have become one of my closest friends here. So many good times and memories, showering, rolling down the hill in the rain, mini-golf, just to name a few. You're an amazing person and I admire that. I leave you the power to always be unique and not let anyone ever change you. Will, we became so close and I miss you so much. You have showed me that it is possible to become so close with someone in such a short amount of time. I leave you the gift of laughter (like you need it) and I miss you. Casey – the baby's a girl. Hummus run. I sprained my ankle for you! Miss you tons! I leave you all the hummus in the world. Rhys – there were these two times at band camp, where we traded pants, together, and no one noticed. I leave you many a pair of plaid shorts. _ Deanna – we had some crazy talks. I'm really glad we became so close! I leave you the gift of choice (and you know what I mean). Catherine! – my cello partner, Love! What did you do today? Nothing. Cheeseburger break! I leave you the ability to count up to 8! 1, 3, 7, 9, 2, 4… Becca – oh what an awesome roommate you were! Sorry for all the late night phone convos! Corey, Cassie, Mathilde – you are and forever will be the coolest music ninjas in my eyes! Singing in the shower was soooo much fun! Priscilla, Deanna, Caitlyn, Catherine and Becca – thanks for always lending an ear and being there for us, and even dealing with our group showers and horrible loud singing! To my girls on fourth floor – Love you!

Last Will and Testament of Alyssa Rizzuto:

To all of my Hartwick friends, acquaintances, counselors, and teachers:
Thanks for making my two weeks here SO WONDERFUL! Everyone was so helpful and just terrific. Becky, Lauren: "You are not a duck." "'Nice. Flirting with the pizza delivery guy.' 'Ew. He has a mullet!'" "As…you…wish…!" "'Oh…oops…but we can fix that!' 'You know, you shouldn't've told her that.'" Kathy: Red Sox fan. I LOVE ALL YOU GUYS!!!

The Last Will and Testament of Rebecca (Becky not Becca) Schmidt:

I wish I could be here for longer than two weeks because everyone here is so awesome. Alyssa, you're a great roommate, even though you have to get up early for brass warm-ups and you're on the phone a lot. Lauren, you're a really cool person and I'm glad I got to know you, thanks for the makeover, even if it only lasted one night To everyone else, third floor of Wilder is the best, oboe players rock, and I hope I'll see you next year.

Lauren Schrader's Last Will and Testament:

Since the day I arrived at camp, I have made so many great new friends. I would love to say something to a few of the people I have spent time with these last two weeks: Addy- thanks for always being there for me when I felt down and for spending so much time with me. Our friendship has developed so much since we came to Hartwick! Mary- We have become such good friends over the past two weeks. I want to thank you for all the fun "girl time" we spent together. It was so awesome! Kyla- I want to thank you for helping me get off to a great start when I first got here. I also love how you are so humorous all the time. You really brighten people's day! Y-lan- You are always so kind and polite to everyone. I have really enjoyed becoming friends with you! Miranda- I really think it is cool that we both have a lot in common! I especially enjoyed chatting about Harry Potter with you! You are a great friend. Kendra- You are so cool and you are such a fun person to be around. Your hair is awesome _! Julia- I had a nice time getting to know you, especially during our film making class! To all the counselors and teachers: you guys are the coolest, most talented group of camp staff I have ever worked with! Even if my day wasn't going so well, you made it so much better. I also have learned a ton from you this summer! Because of you, I have had a totally awesome experience here at Hartwick! Molly and Rachel- you are soooooo talented and friendly and nice and cool! You always really made my day! Rachael- you are a way cool voice teacher! I have learned so much about singing from you! You also are always cheery and kind to me. I am going to miss everyone so much after I leave. This has been a really amazing experience that I will remember for years to come! Keep in touch everyone!

The Last Will and Testament of Johanna Seiden:

To everyone, I leave…Ariel- room keys, the far places we will go, black holes, and puffed up cheeks. Lauren- loads of food, movies, snooze buttons. Liz- juice boxes, pennies, and chocolate ? Anna- band geeks all the way, pre-camp conversations. Erica- piano classes and borrowed skirts. Alyssa & Rebecca- makeover and third floor fun. Jonathan- common courtesy. Emily and Kitsa- the new version and hyperness. Love to the piano people! Thanks for a great session.

Alison Shearer's Will and Testament:

As camp nears its close I would like to express my love for all of my friends who have made this summer so incredible. Thank you all for the memories. To the following people I give personalized items: Karen- pest control (for your room AND Jimmie), your own cash, healthy food. Patrick- Growth pills, sleep, caffeine, an end to all this MAD annoyage!! Julia and Laura Berger- tough running shoes, apples and oranges, men with commitment. Jeff- pantyhose for your feminine attire. Calixto- My old jeans, years of victory, New York style. To my music men: Lil' John- time, Jake- space, Josh- freedom in the groove. To the dynamic duo: Alex- weights to work that body of yours, a camera to capture flute girl in her finest. Randy- A year's supply of Hubba Bubbas, an ironing board, clear diction from your Aunt Corinne, fame for the Bratkon VI. To my soul sisters: Sonora- An endless supply of minutes, ten with splenda, all of my jewelry, powder and visine, TOP scores with SNAKE, practice time, and OPTIMISM – CURTIS lies ahead. Judith- Wholesomeness, solid running time without skankiness, the obvious (lollipops, diet coke, and gum), normalcy and maturity, "intellectuals" to help cultivate your creative core. You rock my socks girl. I'm gonna miss you! Thanks to everyone for the moments of music, laughter, and love. May your years away from Wick be fruitful and fun. Peace out.

Becca Shudak's Last Will and Testament:

It was an awesome summer. I met some great people and made life-long friends. Thanks to everyone who lost their music or forgot to bring their parts to orchestra. I appreciated the exercise. You must have thought I didn't get enough exercise walking from Anderson to Yager with a cello on my back. I'm sorry to anyone who got clipped by my cello. I really didn't mean to hit you. I just forget how wide I really am with the casket on my shoulder. Oh, and the umbrella is really for my cello, not me. I love my first floor girls! You are the best!!! 4th floor chicks, I enjoyed the WHALES and CAPRISUN vent sessions. Hughes, it will work someday, when you get married. Justin, I leave you my pink pants. You can wear them whenever you want. But before I give them to you, can I have my hat back? Lumpkin, DO WHAT I TELL YOU TO DO!! Caitlin, will you do my hair? To Rich, Pigluch. Molly, my pookie. Devlin, make a trip to Ole Miss someday. Shelley, thanks for being my running partner in the mornings. Maura and Deanna, SAI sisters forever. Priscilla, the Midwest ROCKS!!!! Miller, the White Sox are still the best team in MLB. If anyone gets lost going to Perrella just call me, I can give you directions. If anyone needs me, I will be in the sweat shop, aka the library copying and taping music. To my new best buds, keep in touch. If anyone is ever in the Chicago area and needs a place to stay, give me a call and I will be happy to help. If you are passing through, stop and say herrroooo. Sssssshhhhh. Don't forget to drink POP.

Sonora Slocum's Will and Testament:

First of all, I would love to leave my fantastic friends my love…you have all made this my best summer at Hartwick. Karen- "Ahhhhhh" I leave you lip gloss, lots of regular snapple and a coupon for dominos. Good luck in college girl! Alex- I leave you FULTE GIRL! And real food so you won't get upset at every meal. We MUST chill back in the city. Jeff the dinosaur- I leave you a pretty dress and a phone card to call LACRESIA! Julia and Laura- my cute little sisters. I leave you unlimited amounts of pie! Stay sweet girls. Randolph- I leave you herbal essences for your thick lustrous hair, TEEN TITANS and Spongebob. See you in Band 8 next year. Christina- I leave you a revised practice schedule with correct spelling, gushers, and york peppermint patties. Alison- ROOMIE! I leave you a new sax, splenda, earl gray tea, all the necklaces I borrow from you daily, chex mix, more shoes and lots of luck on your auditions, I know you're gonna kill em! Patrick- Boo…you know I love you. I have so much to say but we've got that telepathy so you probably know what I'm thinking anyway. Judith- Oh how I love you so…Darling we have become so close and I'm going to miss you so much. I leave you your black sandals that I basically stole, diet coke, salads with everything, POWDER, combos, "Oh..yea", and bootleg blowpops. LOVE YOU! Calixto- You know I love you despite our daily fights. You are one of my favorite human beings and we really have to stay in touch. If only you weren't 3,000 miles away. I leave you asian girls, the Dvorak piano quintet, "things", new contacts, more "fat pants", and the word "mad". I'll see you in November and I'm sure we will reunite in the future. I love you!

I, Harold Taylor, being of mindless but sound body, do hereby load the following people up with the following stuff:

The members of the Halo room- I leave "WE DON'T WANT ANY!" as well as many great memories of killing my character in just as many horrible ways. To Miles- I leave you our excellent timing when going to eat. To Pete- I leave you Jeff's locker (with my duct tape), Ultimate Frisbee, and all the strange things you do. To Bogardus- I leave you Canada, your crazy room, and stage crew. To Erica- take whatever you want. To Camille- I leave you your crazy Frenchness and your insane jazz piano playing. To Josh Kwartler (in Dan Spencer's words: "Quart with a 'ler' on it")- I leave you stage crew, finishing each other's sentences, me answering your questions with adverbs, and complete control of the first floor. To Dana "Perm Helmet" Malseptic- I leave you our Marxist thoughts. To Little Justin, Black Matt, and Dana- I love you for your interesting attempts at playing my cornet. To Dan Selinger- I leave our strange nighttime conversations, the bugs, and my flyswatter. To Cale- the many things you lost, then found all in one day. To all you gawpers who barged into my room - I leave you my cornet (I only have one, so each of you can only take one piece). To Jeff- I leave you Ultimate Frisbee, Pete and your room, but I'm taking your inflatable chair. To Nicole Vega- I leave you orchestra because I definitely don't want it anymore. To Mike Oquendo- my apology for being a jerk (I leave that to all the people who complained about me as well). To all who hated or disliked me during third session- I'll let you plunder whatever is left.

The Last Will and Testament of Judith Tulkoff:

To my little Hartwick family…you guys made my summer a truly unforgettable and thrilling experience. To Alison: a both beautiful and talented woman of jazz. Thank you for seeming to truly understand me. I love that two years can pass with no communication and when we meet up we pick up exactly where we left off. I leave you with a couple more pairs of matching undies, my admiration for your growing strength (in more way than one), the realization that a "ghetto booty" was meant to be a good thing. To Sonora: An incredible musician who knows how to keep her cool no matter how crazy things get. Your humility is truly admired. I had so much fun with you this summer, its weird just how well you can get to know a person in only six weeks. I'm leaving you an endless supply of blowpops (for that sugar buzz), another crazy night of "golf", the satisfaction that I won't be able to stop saying "mad ___-age" when I leave. To Karen: The intrepid principal violinist who taught me what real devotion looks like. Thank you for being my constant shower reminder, being so incredibly "open" (creating many memorable moments), realizing what's really important (common sense and piece of mind, thanks Lil John). To Patrick: No cheesy stuff here, just sooo many crazy times. I leave you with my forgiveness for the dress "incident", the promise that I will never again call you "sugar plum", my appreciation for you introducing me to the hands trick and our "secret hide out". Calixto: I leave you with shredded film as proof of the destruction of a certain camera, the inability to stop impersonating me with "the face" even after you return home. Jeff: I leave you with a do-rag for Lakreesha, a mini-skirt (size medium) for yourself. Randy: I leave you everlasting gratitude for covering me up, neck rubs anytime, you know who's number. Alex: Thanks for making my summer mind-blowingly funny. I leave you with a fun-filled night out with flute girl, my purple garment for old time's sake (psych!). And lastly, to my summer sisters Laura and Julia: We are so cute! Thank you both for being girly-girls with me; sun-bathing, giggles, and magazines. I will never forget our dining hall lounging (for hours), the best of all boat trips, avoiding certain boys together. Julia: thank you for introducing me to real dark chocolate (no Karen, not that kind), appreciating my feet, trying to keep B-ball "Festival Appropriate" with me. Laura: our combined strengths helped me to improve both musically and athletically. Thanks for being such a great running partner and an amazing violinist. Our friendship really means a lot to me, its nice to have someone you know you can tell anything to. Thanks for making my summer so special. I love all you guys so much! (Reunion in the city – its happening).

The Last Will and Testament of Lauren Vernice:

To everyone I've met here at camp: you guys are awesome! I'm sooo glad that we had such a great time! Johanna: so many funny times! "Look at the pianist's hair!" – lol – that pizza was GREAT! Alyssa: Mullets Rock! – lol. Rebecca: Makeovers are awesome! Ariel: Thanks for spilling apple juice on me! Emily: I love the old movie! – lol - quartet is so fun. Cassie & Kitsa: The movies was so much fun! And to everyone else you guys are so much fun. Thanks for a great two weeks!
